

SWIM PROGRAM

CANADA DAY

The date to host Canada Day will be brought back to the January meeting. Booking of entertainment will be done after that.

TREE LIGHTING

A finalized to-do-list was circulated. Kelly will be the Parade Marshal. Rebel will look after the music. Rebel will be in charge of the hayrides. Bettyann will contact the paper to see if they are available to be at the event. It was decided that a cake or two would be purchased. Shirley will look after this. Bettyann will contact Dorothy. She will look after Santa at the Heritage House. Kelly told the committee that Mayor Ellis is going to ride in the back of the township truck that is pulling the Santa float and will be handing out candies. Bettyann is to contact Mayor Hall and Mayor Baker to see if they would be interested in doing the same.

FAMILY DAY CELEBRATION

OTHER PROGRAMS

The Physical Activity Night held on November 18th had a good turnout. Two future dates to be booked are March 3 and April 21, 2017. In the future more committee members should be present.

A teen dance will be held in January. Bettyann will contact Dennis Johnstone and set up a date. The time will be 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. The recreation committee will offer Dennis $25.00 towards glow sticks.
