CANADA DAY

The Callander Pipe Band is booked. The Shriner Cycle Unit has confirmed that they will participate in the parade. Northern Lights Steel Orchestra is penciled in and we will be notified in May if they are available to attend. Bettyann is working with Brian Gosby re:

the pizza vendor. Bettyann will ask him if he requires hydro. Rebel will ask the Sundridge Royal Canadian Legion Branch 467 if they would be interested in selling fries. Bettyann has been in contact with the Muskoka Dance Academy and they are interested in participating in the parade as well as performing. Dennis Johnstone will DJ at the waterfront from approximately 1 – 4 p.m. Swamp Donkees are checking their schedule to perform musical entertainment in the evening. Nancy is still working on obtaining a magician. A letter was sent out to the Lion's Club asking them if they are interested in hosting the BBQ again this year. Letters have been sent to the Honourable Tony Clement and Norm Miller, MPP. Nancy is looking into obtaining the Tim Horton's truck for the day. Bettyann will look into options for face painting.

TREE LIGHTING

The committee decided to change the day and weekend of the tree lighting ceremony. It will be held on Saturday, November 25th. Bettyann will book the arena.

TEEN DANCE

The date for the next teen dance is Friday, April 7 at the SSJ. It will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Stephen, John, Jason and possibly Steve and Sarah Hicks, Betty, Jeff, Shirley and Kelly will be in attendance. A float is needed. Notes will be sent to the schools and flyers made up for the committee to distribute.

FAMILY DAY CELEBRATION

The day was great all the way around. The weather was perfect and there was a good attendance. There were great sales from the popcorn and candy floss. Jeff and Kelly will purchase maple syrup to have for a taffy pull for next year as it was a success. The horse drawn wagon rides were well attended and there was a constant line up for the dog sled rides.

OTHER PROGRAMS

Physical Activity Night – Friday, March 3rd. John, Jeff and Kelly will be present.

BUDGET DISCUSSION

A draft work sheet was circulated. The committee discussed various ideas.
